October 18, 2018

Come To The Gathering!

Nov. 3, Morgan-Monroe SF

Dear Folks,

I want to invite you to our Fall Gathering at the Training Center of the Morgan Monroe State Forest. It will take place on November 3 beginning at 11 am. Charles and Nina Andrews will share a presentation of their 2018 AT thru hike. Lindsey Pine hopes to be in attendance to share on her thru hike. We ask participants to bring a side dish, desert, or snack to the gathering. Members of the KHTA and the KHTA Board will provide the main dish, refreshments, utensils, etc. For your car GPS the address of the Training Center is 6220 Forest Road, Martinsville, IN. Be aware of the ongoing construction along Hwy 37 – new I-69 corridor. Anyone curious about or interested in supporting the efforts of the KHTA are welcomed to attend.

We will have displays featuring progress towards the building of the trail. KHTA T-Shirts and Maps of the original KT will be available for purchase. A variety of other free brochures and information will be available. There will a brief presentation on the current status of our efforts.

Currently, we're focusing on building up our infrastructure by the establishment of committees. The KHTA would benefit greatly from your participation on one of the committees. We have a strong need for help with Financial Development, Public Relations, and Adopters for the Hoosier National Forest section of the trail.

Let's keep our fingers crossed and our hands folded for great weather on Nov. 3!
